Last Vision

Holyhell

Heaven did once hold a place
For those who fell into the darkness from light
Fell in torment fell in painInto the fires of hell
Over the souls of the dead we shall reign
Till the day we rise againMine is the kingdom of darkness
Thine is the kingdom of Light
Fly from the light of the heavens
Fly into nightWe angels fall from heaven
From everlasting light
Into a world of darkness
To everlasting nightWe'll wait for the end of the world
We'll wait for the saviors of light to be shamed
Then the armies of darkness shall reignLet the battle on earth now begin
The souls of the dead will be calling our name
As they rise up from the graveMine is the kingdom of darkness
Thine is the kingdom of Light
Fly from the light of the heavens
Fly into nightWe angels fall from heaven
From everlasting light
Into a world of darkness
To everlasting nightMine is the kingdom of darkness
Thine is the kingdom of Light
Fly from the light of the heavens
Fly into nightWe angels fall from heaven
From everlasting light
Into a world of darkness
To everlasting night
