

Anger Cage

Course Of Nature

Since the day that I was born
I've been a prisoner of the storm
But the time has come
Now I've had enough
I can't take it anymore
The blood rushes to my head
You deserve everything you getThe love is gone
And there's nothing left here
But the love you try to hate
Tell me now who's to blame?
Will I burst from your rage?Hear it callin' my name
Down in your anger cage
On the course of the fightin'
Force my rage out of iron
Well do you stop and look at meAs you bomb the enemy
You know that you've
Crossed the line for the last timeWhen you trampled over me
The blood rushes to my head
You deserve everything you getThe love is gone
But the love you try to hate
Tell me now who's to blame?
Will I burst from your rage?
Hear it callin' my name
Down in your anger cageOn the course of the fightin'
Force my rage out of iron
I started losing it
I I'm out of control
This rage is killin' meYeah, it's takin' it's toll
I'm fallin' apart from here
I can see the end
It's all so clear
I might choke, suffocateInside my anger cage
Tell me now who's to blame?
Will I burst from your rage?
Hear it callin' my name
Down in your anger cageOn the course of the fightin'
Force my rage out of iron
Don't care what you say

I don't give a damn
You talk about me
But you don't know who I am
Don't care what you say I don't give a damn
You talk about me
But you don't know who I am
You talk about me
But you don't know who I am
You talk about me but you don't know
