

Mr. McGallagher

Sweet

Mr. McGallagher, my, what a character
I've got a feeling that you'll go far
In a menagerie of limited capacity
Teaching himself to be a superstar

If you should think of a magical show
An incredible show you would like to see
Just go and see the mechanical cast of the magical cast in a menagerie

And he's such an elegant fellow
And he does whatever's in line

And he's such an elegant fellow
And he does whatever's in line
And he says to people concerning
That's it's just a matter of time

And he's such an elegant fellow
And he does whatever's in line...
