Nothing More Nothing Less

MONORAL

I've seen the end
Out of punctures in my arms
Now I see myself
Enchanted by all of your charmsNow would you mind
If I'm too stoned now
Would you mindThere's nothing more
There's nothing less
The changes kill
There's nothing more
There's nothing lessTo wash away the rage inside of meHere I am as lonely as I wish to be
Well I have found
The coolness surrounding meNow would you mind
If I'm too stoned now
Would you mindThere's nothing more
There's nothing less
The changes kill
There's nothing more
There's nothing lessThere's nothing more
There's nothing less
The changes kill
There's nothing more
There's nothing lessThese feelings I have for you are killing me...
