

Heart So Close

Promise of Redemption

Well, I hold my heart so close on my sleeve
And I'll give it away if they take it away from me
Some say that's a flaw and I say that's just me
So here is my heart, just take as you pleaseI only got this moment
It's all I am, it's all I am today, today
And I am sensitive to the fact
That I can never fully watch my back
Without you by my side, without you by my side'Cause now you're in Pennsylvania
Go off onto your homeSo here is your anthem, a song to remind
Of what it was like when your life passed you by Just 18 years, all I have is to be
You tell me what happened to these memoriesI only got this moment
It's all I am, it's all I am today, today
And I'm sensitive to the fact
That I can never fully watch my back
Without you by my side, without you by my side'Cause now you're in Pennsylvania
Go off onto your homeGone away, gone away
Gone away, gone away
