What You Don't Know

Monrose

What you don't know
Is that your scars are beautiful
What you don't know
Is your imperfections are what make me whole
What you don't know
Is how I spiral down
Cause I can't speak whenever you're around
And it's not like me to hide behind a wall
And it's not like me to fear the fall
What you don't know
Is that I lay awake
Wishing you were here tonight
What you don't know
That I loved you long before we were alive
Cause how would you know, how could you know
So now I'm gonna tell you everything
What you don't know
I have studied the way you walk
What you don't know
Is I've already kissed you in the shadows of my heart
What you don't know
Is that you're poetry
If you turn around there's someone you won't see

And it's not like me to hide behind a wall
What you don't know
is that I lay awake
Wishing you were here tonight
What you don't know
Is that I loved you long before we were alive
Cause how would you know, how could you know
So now I'm gonna tell you everything
What you don't know
What you don't know
What you don't know
Is when the moon and the sun collide
The morning comes there's time I won't be afraid to try
What you don't know

is that I lay awake
Wishing you were here tonight
What you don't know
Is that I loved you long before we were alive
Cause how would you know, how could you know
So now I'm gonna tell you everything
What you don't know
