Velvet Heaven

Shocking Blue

When I'm down, I go into the land of dreams built for two It's a world of consolation and there's no need of any conversation.Oh, velvet heaven, high in the sky above I think of you when I'm blue in love blue in loveCome to me and I'll be your guide
The moon never fails tonight We'll be only disturbed by Some gently sounds out of the sky.Lyrics and music: Robbie van Leeuwen
