English

Iâ€™m blinded by you, who shines so that all other light becomes colorless, youâ€™re a strong flashlight You still remain as a strong afterimage, a flashback

I walked through a long maze, in between visions of you It seems like I can touch you but my hand goes through empty air

The only thing in my head is only you Iâ€™m going crazy over the fantasy that seems like reality Oh no no, it canâ€™t be, it canâ€™t be really you
The moment I go to you, with a pounding heart

For a moment, heart attack, in the end
The world overwhelms me with an ecstatic feeling of this heart attack
I like you so much that I donâ€™t care if I stop breathing

Heart Attack â€œ at the end of waiting My heart that is about to burst falls silent Iâ€™m so peaceful that I donâ€™t care if I stop breathing now

You dazzle so much that after you disappeared, nothing stayed the same
The air gets congested and hardens so I canâ€™t even breathe

I said something to you, even though you might not have heard Although you surprised by my voice and turned around

My eyes shake as I ask an important question I might not even believe in it myself Oh no no, it can't be,

it can't be really you
The moment my hand touches your small face

For a moment, heart attack, in the end
The world overwhelms me with an
ecstatic feeling of this heart attack
I like you so much that I don't care
if I stop breathing

Heart Attack " at the end of waiting
My heart that is about to burst
falls silent
I'm so peaceful that I don't care
if I stop breathing

Can I believe it if you say it's a dream?
I won't hurt like this I will hug you, who shines brightly
If only everything stops in place

For a moment, heart attack, in the end
The world overwhelms me with an
ecstatic feeling of this heart attack
I like you so much that I don't care
if I stop breathing

Heart Attack " at the end of waiting
My heart that is about to burst
falls silent
I'm so peaceful that I don't care
if I stop breathing
