

Fairground (Cabriolet Paris Bootleg)

Simply Red

Driving down an endless road
Taking friends or moving alone
Pleasure at the fairground on the way It's always friends that feel so good
Let's make amends like all good men should
Pleasure at the fairground on the way Walk around, be free and roam
There's always someone leaving alone
Pleasure at the fairground on the way And I love the thought of coming home to you
Even if I know we can't make it
I love the thought of giving hope to you
Just a little ray of light shining through Love can bend and breathe alone
Until the end it finds you a home
Don't care what the people may say It's always friends that feel so good
Let's make amends like all good men should
Pleasure at the fairground on the way And I love the thought of coming home to you
Even if I know we can't make it
I love the thought of giving hope to you
Just a little ray of light shining through
After all, they say you only live once
