

blue ridge mountains (live)

Fleet Foxes

Light up with me my dear,
Light up.
Under stormy night, tell nobody. My brother where do you intend to go tonight?
I heard that you missed your connecting flight, to the blue ridge mountains, over near Tennessee. You're ever welcome with me any time you like,
Let's drive to the country side, leave behind some green-eyed look-a-likes,
So no one gets worried, no.
So no one gets worried, no. But Sean don't get callous,
I'm sure it'll be fine.
I love you, I love you,
Oh brother of mine. In the quivering forest,
Where the shivering dog rests,
Our good grandfather
Built a wooden nest.
And the river got frozen,
And the hole got snowed in,
And the yellow moon glowed bright
Till the morning light. Terrible am I child?
Even if you don't mind.
In the quivering forest,
Where the shivering dog rests,
Our good grandfather
Built a wooden nest.
And the river got frozen,
And the home got snowed in,
And the yellow moon glowed bright
Till the morning light. Terrible am I child?
Even if you don't mind,
No.
