

All My Life

Lee McBee & Mike Morgan and The Crawl

All my life
there's something I've been searching for
All my life
there's something I've been searching for
What is out there, you know I just don't know

All my life
I thought that I was missing something
All my life
I thought that I was missing something
Well I soon found out I was missing nothing

(aw yeah, c'mon brother!)
(alright!)

All my life
I tried to live too fast
All my life
I tried to live too fast
Well now I'm getting older, I wanna make it last

All my life
I thought that I was born to lose
All my life
I thought that I was born to lose
I wasn't to lose, I was born with the blues

I wasn't to lose, I was born with the blues

I was not born to lose, I was born with the blues
