Vagabond Blues

Jason Manns

When I saw you walkin' all alone simply smiled and told me you were a million miles from home

And you don't know why People just walk on by
You just look at them and then you say

Gonna be okay

I know you have only one who see You don't know and wanna go But you know you gotta be free

And you don't know why
People just walk on by
You just look at them and then you say

Hey, gonna be okay

You sing
lalalalala
Your song go
lalalalala
And you sing it loud

You sing
lalalalala
Your song go
lalalalala
And you sing it proud

When I asked you to come along with me Thank me but you tell me you don't go for charity

And you don't know why
People just walk on by
You just look at them and then you say

You gonna be okay

You sing
lalalalala
Your song go
lalalalala
And you sing it loud

You sing
lalalalala
Your song go
lalalalala
And you sing it proud

You sing
lalalalala
Your song go
lalalalala
And you sing it loud

You sing
lalalalala
Your song go
lalalalala
And you sing it
lalalalala
Your song go
lalalalala
And you sing it
lalalalala
Your song go
lalalalala
And you sing it proud
