Miss You Ray

Nils Lofgren

The morning sun, it don't shine as bright, the evening stars, are dim tonight,
Your ancient voice, soothes my fearful soul
I miss you Ray x2
I pound my nails, love my wife and kids My gifts are not,
as grand as yours So this and every song you sing, Heals our troubled hearts
We miss you Ray I miss you Ray
We miss you Billy, Louie, Nat, Frank & Ray
I miss you Dan, your gentle spirit way Still life is grand,
I owe so much to you
I miss you all I miss you Ray X2 We miss you all I miss you Ray X2
