Night's Blood

Dissection

Night haunts and evil lurks in every corner
Like plague it's spreading I behold
Loneliness, yet with you autumn night as guest
But can you hear my cries?Permeate me, oh night, as with the forest you did
For heart is cold, cold as iceI drown in the color of your eye
For a black heart will only find beauty in darkness
I breathe it's eternity to absorb the sky
Where the shadows of death may lieFeel the call, nocturnal desire
Sorrow's breath enchanting cries
Night's blood taste damnation's wine
Feel the pain, nocturnal desire
The devil's path of dark delight
Night's blood pure damnation's wineEyes are glowing, burn as hell's fire
Mark thy wisdom in my mindThose who never was born but whose darkness eternally
Devastated the goodness built up through millenniums
No time passed, our victory is eternal
Our scorn, our silenceA heart dies drowning in the night's blood
Everlasting malice for the wicked soul
Can't resist the night's sweet bloodLoneliness in the embrace of you autumn night
The night that froze my cries
Deep into the woods glows a fading light
I sold my soul, cold as iceI drown in the color of your eye
For a black heart will only find beauty in darkness
I breathe it's eternity to absorb the sky
Where the shadows of death may lieFeel the call, nocturnal desire
Sorrow's breath enchanting cries
Night's blood taste damnation's wine
Feel the pain nocturnal desire
The devil's path of dark delight
Night's blood pure damnation's wine
