

Murder Suicide

One-Eyed Doll

Why do I try
To live with these lies
I've run but I cant hide
From a murder suicide
SuicideThe truth has been so dark
And pain has left it's mark
Somewhere it still resides
A murder suicide
SuicideGod take me I pray
Before I rot away
For I've already died
In a murder suicide
SuicideWhy do I cry
For the blood that's lost its drive
Don't want to be the bride
Of a murder suicide
SuicideGod take me I pray
Before I rot away
For I've already died
In murder suicideGod take me I pray
Before I rot away
For I've already died
In a murder suicide
Suicide
