

Daddy

Custom

i want to be an addict
i want to be a whore
i want to be a headcase with no apparent cure i want not to be responsible for the things i do and say to be considered a mad genius for the idiots i blow away i'm all up in this girl whose husband is a cop
should i stop
hell no
hell no
i want to be eccentric in the hughsian
sense of the word
i want to be cooked up and filleted never to be served
i want to carry out coups military and the like to kidnap royal daughters from big palaces at night i want to do the things they say can never be done i want to pass every lesser car in my lemans prepped mclaren f1

but i think i'm being followed i get all skitchy it's hard to swallow
maybe i'm just wallowing in self pity
maybe it's just this psycho city or the fact that she's so fucking pretty

i want the dealers to roll me fatties pimps pick me up in their in-the-mud caddies
thugs lay down their gatties and battles
i want every last motherfucking bad guy to call me daddy who's your daddy
you can call me daddy
