

Conquer All

Behemoth

Mightiest Self!
Cast out of Thy Elysium
With blood of Nazarene
I write the story of man 2000 Years
Is nothing though it has been enough
Come forth victorious
Muting the foul angelic choirs! None of thy empty gods, shall ever stand above me
None of thy weak brothers, shalt ever share my blood
My awareness, catalyst, of godhate I have spawned
In sinister ecstasy eternally I decompose Race of man!
The errors of a wise make The rules
Ye shall see
Rather than the perfection of the fool
The most divine!
I am many! Among so very few
Beyond redemption, beyond the weak
Thus I beheld the truth! None of thy empty gods, shall ever stand above me
None of thy weak brothers, shalt ever share my blood
My awareness, catalyst, of godhate I have spawned
In sinister ecstasy eternally I'm decomposed I am the pure flame that burns
I am Sirius' son
I am the infinite space
I am the most conquering one
