

Sky Blue Sky

Wilco

Oh, the band marched on in formation
The brass was phasing tunes I couldn't place
Windows open and raining in
Maroon, yellow, blue, gold and grayThe drunks were ricocheting
The old buildings downtown, empty so long ago
Windows broken and dreaming
So happy to leave what was my homeWith the sky blue sky this rotten time
Wouldn't seem so bad to me now
Oh, I didn't die, I should be satisfied
I survived that's good enough for nowWith the sky blue sky this rotten time
Wouldn't seem so bad to me now
Oh, if I didn't die, I should be satisfied
I survived it's good enough for now
