Frozen Paths

Vader

I am soaring
Among the endless mountains
Grim winter, crystal sight
Place forgotten by the godsUnknown for me
Towers, bridges, structures
Mirage conjured in rock
Mirage conjured in iceThe frozen onesDark shadow blights
Paths rambling to the sky
Everything laid in frost
Winds of loneliness and despairIs all I heard here?
Abyss haunted by demons
Whirling picture
Of the old raceBestial landscapes
Sound of imminent decay
Amorphous creatures
From time before timeThe sun is glimmeringFrozen pathsCaves dwelled during chaos time
Dangerous screams and whispers
The signs of the upcoming fateYeah, the frozen ones
Yeah, the frozen ones but alive
