You're Welcome

The Undertones

Sad girl, such an unusual attraction
Sad girl, how come you look so hurt?Always locked up in my room
Disguising my faces in the gloom
Hiding like a millionaire
Safely out of site when I'm in thereYou're welcome
You're welcome'Cause all sorts of problems when I'm out
No one has the brains to keep me out
Sane as anybody in this place
Counting all the cracks that's in my faceYou're welcome
You're welcomeSad girl, such an unusual attraction
Sad girl, how come you look so hurt?
Sad girl, such an unusual attraction
