

Smile

Olive

Smile, you'll steal away my soul

Smile, I'll hide away and cry

My mind's made up

I will shudder to see your eyes

Smile no doubt I'll keep my pride

But it may be hard to findThere's nothing left, handed down your legacy

But more regret painted on with empathySmile, don't complicate my time

Smile don't ask me if I'm fine

My world blown down

There is nothing that words can say

Smile, no doubt I'll keep my pride

But more regret painted on with empathyThere's nothing left, there's nothing leftSmile, you'll steal away my soul

Smile, I'll hide away and cry

There's nothing left handed down your legacy

Smile, no doubt I'll keep my pride

But it may be hard to find, if only you had tried

Gonna leave it far behind

It may be hard to find, if only you had tried

Gonna leave it far behind
