

Sittin On the Job

Tamia

Sittin' here on the job
And hopin' that you would call me
My eyes, my eyes are tired
From us sittin' up and just talking, all night
My supervisor noticed
I'm kind of slow for today
My girlfriends also noticed
I'm joyful, what can I say?
It's only been 2 months
But I'm prayin' that you're the one
Please baby, be the one
Please baby be
Keep replaying your kisses
Can't get them out of my mind, I try
My work is piling up and
Who'd guess that I'd get behind but that's fine
It's only 12:07
I take my first break at 2
It seems I have a message
I hope to God that it's you
It's only been 2 months
But I'm prayin' that you're the one
Please baby, be the one
Please baby be
It's 2:13 I'm smiling
I hear your voice on the phone
Oh my, tell me you wanna see me
Can't wait until I get home, tonight
My mind says, "Slow it down, girl
This thing right here is so new"
But my heart says keep it movin'
Two thoughts but I'm not confused
It's only been 2 months
But I'm prayin' that you're the one
Please baby, be the one
Please baby be
