Point of no return

Stormwitch

When the night's falling and the dark's crawling in the streets where the bats fly out to kill When a wolf's howling and the death's prowling when the witches are dancing on the hillCan you hear the madman shout?
Someone blows the candle outStanding at the point of no return the sky's on fire now it's Satan's turn the point of no return, no returnWhen an owl's crying and a dog's dying when the forces of evil rule the land When the pane's breaking and the ground's shaking when the gods take revenge on every manSpider webs stick to your face Can you feel their tight embrace?Standing at the point...
