Above The Winter Moonlight

Dragonforce

On wings of burning fire across the oceans far
The legends of the seven seas and mystic fallen star
Their laden ships are sailing on towards the sun
To the island of the everlasting chosen one
Face our fear along the way our freedom will prevail
The crown and the shining light
Punishment and anger in the fire of your soul
Prepare the eternal fight
Lost in a dream in a boundless sea
Rivers of pain are guiding me
Defending this land from the sins of man
Never surrender our dreams again
Ride forever onwards stare into the sun's
Where hopes and dreams are everlasting marching on and on (Marching on and on)
Rise another day across the distant skies
Where the dawn above the winter moonlight
Shines upon the fall of our lives
Insanity, sublime shall make my bleeding heart
Feel cold and fearless anger rising far beyond the dark
In search of might and wisdom sacrifice our souls
In the name of truth and justice never to be told
Face our fear along the way our freedom will prevail
The crown and the shining light

Punishment and anger in the fire of your soul
Prepare the eternal fight
Can you not feel the eternal pain?
Flows through your heart and every vein
The torture begins and it breaks you down
Nothing to save when the soul is gone
Ride forever onwards stare into the sun's
Where hopes and dreams are everlasting marching on and on (Marching on and on)
Rise another day across the distant skies
Where the dawn above the winter moonlight
Shines upon the fall of our lives
Ride forever onwards stare into the sun's
(Ohh, stare into the sun's)

Where hopes and dreams are everlasting marching on and on (Marching on and on)
Rise another day across the distant skies
Where the dawn above the winter moonlight
Shines upon the fall of our lives
Ride forever onwards stare into the sun's
Where hopes and dreams are everlasting marching on and on
Rise another day across the distant skies
Where the dawn above the winter moonlight
Shines upon the fall of our lives
