

Keep Your Darkness Secret

Moto Boy

baby keep your darkness secret
baby keep your darkness secret down by the lake where you lost your heart I'll be waiting with a shot in the dark don't let them know 'cause they won't understand you if you tell dressed in black in the moonless light baby you know where I'll be tonight don't let them hear you 'cause they will never see the love in your eyes when you're with me ooh baby
keep your darkness secret
ooh baby
keep your darkness secret always now slowly baby lean in to me, bend in to my kiss the night is so cold but my blood is on fire am down in your eyes your eyes your eyes
keep your darkness secret
ooh baby
keep your darkness secret
(ooh baby)
(keep your darkness secret)
(ooh baby)
(keep your darkness secret)
