

New Blue Moon

The Traveling Wilburys

I don't want nothing
Nothing but you
Am I waiting
Looking for a new blue moon I'm so tired waiting
Waiting for you
Am I waiting
Looking for a new blue moon So many moons have come and gone
And none of them were blue
Too many times the sun came up
But it came up without you, you, ya yoo hoo oo You don't call me
Call me lonely
Am I waiting
Looking for a new blue moon So many moons have come and gone
And none of them were blue
Too many times the sun came up
But it came up without you, you, you, ya yoo hoo oo Someday when you hold me
Someday you may see
I was waiting
Looking for a new blue moon
I was waiting
Looking for a new blue moon Blue moon
