

It's Over

Goo Goo Dolls

And I didn't think about
(And I didn't think about)
All the ways I've hurt you and myself
And I hurt wouldn't say a thing to you
I keep it to myself in
My mind And I can't stand without you
And I won't find the answers
When you're gone But it's over to you
I can't find the answer when you're gone
And it's over to you
But you can't find the answer where you are And you know, I need you now
(And you know, I need you now)
And this ain't easy to admit
But no one needs to know
What goes on behind
The door in my room
Kicking through the
Walls in my mind And I can't stand without you
And I won't find the answers
When you're gone But it's over to you
I can't find the answer when you're gone
And it's over to you
But you can't find the answer where you are I won't tear you down
I won't tear you down
To get into the world you wanted
Kicking through the walls
No one can believe
In things that never change But it's over to you
I can't find the answer when you have
And it's over to you
But you can't find the answers when you are But it's over to you
I can't find the answer when you're gone
I can't find the answer when you're gone
I can't find the answer when you're gone
