It's Not My Fault

Taryn Manning

You know I felt much better when I had you
With me the thunder and lightning was so beautiful
But I awoke from the dream just like i alwyas seem to
It all feels so realSo everybody I know, they know me well Enough to know to get close, is hard as hell
But that don't mean you shouldn't try
I really think you should try,ay,ayI 've tried to fight it, but now I am on my knees and,CHORUS:
It's not my fault
If I cant hold on, I'm not that strong,
Nooo...it's not my fault
Can't you just play along with me.It's been so long since we slept in the same bed
It's hard to get me alone or get inside my head
Would you prefer me to fake it and cry instead
You say it's like I'm deadI 've tried to fight it, but now I am on my knees and,CHORUSI, find that everything I try always falls apart and crashes and dies and I, find the strength to try again
oh, I fall to my knees, and pray to beginCHORUS (x2)
