

Beer Can

Luke Combs

I've been working this job 9 to 5
Minium wage and overtime
But here comes a few days of unpaid vacation
And there ain't no way jose i'll waste them
'Cause there ain't no better feeling then whenI pick up a beer can
And get to feeling like superman
Its Friday night yah
Hears the plan
I'm gonna throw back a couple an'
Keep it 'em glued to my right hand
Any flavor, size, or brand
Until the point where I can't stand
No, nothing picks me up like a beer canWell I woke up at 1 pm
And introduced myself to my new girlfriend
And there's a racking ball size hole in the wall in the basement
I ain't got no clue how or who could've made it
Well all I knew how is shit hit the fan
And here we go againSo I pick up a beer can
And get to feeling like superman
It's Saturday out
Heres the plan
I'm gonna throw back a couple an'
Keep it 'em glued to my right hand
Any flavor, size, or brand
Until the point where I can't stand
No, nothing picks me up like a beer canWell it's Sunday now
And I'm freaking out 'cause I can't handle 5 days withoutYeah I'm picking up a beer can
And get to feeling like superman
Its Sunday, who gives a damn
I'm gonna throw back a couple an'
Keep it 'em glued to my right hand
Any flavor, size, or brand
Till the point where I can't stand
No, nothing picks me up like a beer canLike a beer can
No, nothing picks me up like a beer can
