

Close Your Eyes

Dot Allison

I see stars above me
But the sky is bare
When will I catch the sunrise?
I could wear it anywhereI'd like to take you with me
To steal the moon
Then we could bring it back
To brighten up my best friend's roomClose your eyes
Let me take you to the sun
Burnin' slowly
Held together in the skyI want to find a rainbow
And paint it black
Then fly the satellite
That landed here this afternoonClose your eyes
Let me take you to the sun
Burnin' slowly
Held together in the skyClose your eyes
Let me take you to the sun
Burnin' slowly
Held together in the skyThere's nothin' missing you can place
Nothin' broken you can save
Nothin' wounded you can healClose your eyes
Let me take you to the sun
Burnin' slowly
Held together in the skyClose your eyes
Let me take you to the sun
Burnin' slowly
Held together in the sky
