Hey Baby

Stephen Marley

Hey, baby, don't you worry even though the road is rocky
I'll be coming home to you again
'Cause if you thought that I was lost, I had to burn my cross
Now, I'm free from all these chains
I'm been gone a while away from you and I hope you overstand
That I've got to do what I must do to be a better man
'Cause if I was just to act a fool, do nothing with myself
And all my blessings would be curse, my world would crumble in It's a joy when I sit down and think of the good times that we have
And what we do to make it through when the good turns to the bad
Well, I hope you'll find it in your heart and know these words are true
And please don't fuss because I must go do what I must do
Hey, baby, don't you worry even though the road is rocky
I'll be coming home to you again
'Cause if you thought that I was lost, I had to burn my cross
Now, I'm free from all these chains
A time, a space, a difference place, how perfect we might be
I would be the wind that blows, you'd be that willow tree
And I could never bare the thought of you not by my side
So I would be the one to tell, ?You be the cool of night?
And everyday I pray to Jah that one day you will see
And overstand the fact I must fulfill my destiny
I hope you'll find it in your heart and know these words are true
And please don't cry, you know that I must do what I must do
Hey, baby don't you worry even though the road is rocky
I'll be coming home to you again
'Cause if you thought that I was lost, I had to burn my cross
Now, I'm free from all these chains
Well, and it's not easy, Jah knows how I try, I try
So don't you get weary, Jah knows how I try, I try
Hey baby, don't you worry even though the road is rocky
I'll be coming home to you again
'Cause if you thought that I was lost, I had to burn my cross
Now, I'm free from all these chains

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/