

Rainy Day Sun

Spinal Tap

Here she comes, that rainy day sun
Peeking in and out the falling raindrops
Smiling down on everyoneIn her golden, gossamer gown
And a necklace of the finest rainbows
Drying out this rainy day townGoodbye cloudy skies
Here she comes, here she comes
To cut them down to size
And fly the tears in my eyesHere she comes that rainy day sun
Like a moppet at a birthday party
Rainy day's not spoiling her funOpen up the top of your mind
Catch the water in your magic paint box
Oh, the many colors you findGoodbye, cloudy skies
Here she comes, here she comes
To cut them down to size
And dry the tears in my eyes
