

Bad One

Tripidelic

I've taken steps, to hedge my bets
I made amends with most my friends
I paid my debts and stayed in check
I've shown respect, more or less

I even got sober but you can't get over
All the shit I did, when we were kids
And time moved slower but now we're older
And more mature but you're not sure

If I'm a bad one
Like there never was a good thing I had done
Said she don't like what I've become and she rather be alone
I'm a bad one
Everything I did can't be undone
Said she don't like what I've become and she rather go home

I held my breath for your two cents
But I know it comes with more expense
And I can't rewind us but it could be fine just Give me that chance to save our plan

If I'm a bad one
Like there never was a good thing I had done
Said she don't like what I've become and she rather be alone
I'm a bad one
Everything I did can't be undone
Said she don't like what I've become and she rather go home

I made my bed and laid my head
In my regrets and barely slept
I've done my best but can't expect
You to forget the nights I spent
Out being sleazy, I know it ain't that easy
When trust is gone, its probably gone
I realize completely, how I hurt you'd deeply
I did you wrong, and why you're on

That I'm a bad one
Like there never was a good thing I had done

Said she don't like what I've become and she rather be alone
I'm a bad one
Everything I did can't be undone
Said she don't like what I've become and she rather go home

I'm a bad one
Everything I did can't be undone
Said she don't like what I've become and she rather go home
I'm a bad one
Everything I did can't be undone
Said she don't like what I've become and she rather go home
