Kid Dynamite

Stretcher! HEY! I see you stretching to compensate for the attention you're not getting. Practice routine impressions, you always tried so hard to be perfect. I've seen it so many times before, don't blame me because your life's a bore Shift. you fucking faker Give yourself to reaction formation. Lie. Liar on fire. You always need someone on your side. So come on... DON'T FORGET! To mention all the great things you did. IMPLY! You're better than everyone. Put others down to put yourself on top, despite the people that you hurt The life you glamorize, exploit and ADVERTISE!, means nothing to you. Hang on the coat tails of the ones before you. crawl through the dirt, You love it. Don't you?
