I had a lover this winter
He learned to build a fire in my stove I learned to dress pretty, but then he Went back to the city

Sing it up baby,
keep coming 'round
Sing it up baby,
keep coming 'round
I want you

On the street in your black and your slick Holding hands with your carpenter chick I'm all covered in sawdust and glue
But I like walking you

Sing it up baby,
keep coming 'round
Sing it up baby,
keep coming 'round
I want you
I want you I need you

I got a hollow in my heart
I cried away all my water
And left you with a kiss so dry
I thought our love might die

Sing it up baby,

keep coming 'round
Sing it up baby,
keep coming 'round
I want you

He left me standing strong
In my boots like I never stood before He showed me a way
Like it was always there

Sing it up baby,
keep coming 'round
Sing it up baby,
keep coming 'round
I want you
I want you I need you
