

Outsider

Pyskaty

I'm silent
In the rolling wake
Of lucky and adored
 Ugly
A blur on the side
So easily ignored

Speechless
In my screaming way
They all laugh and smile
 Spotlights
Give the loved a stage
But only burn the shy

I will always be the outsider
Will I always walk the road alone?

Disguised
So the crowd can't see
My strategies and plans
 The last
Of the shopworn secrets
No one understands

I will always be the outsider
Will I always walk the road alone?
Will I always find it hard to Make this world of lies
 My own

I'd give it all
All to find my way
 Inside you
I can't fake myself round
 To fit the hole
 That hides in you
 Looking at me
I know just what you'd say
 If you cared

I will always be the outsider
Will I always walk the road alone?
Will I always find it hard to
So hard to Make this
World of lies
My own
