

Mr. Clay

Bamboo

I

Red sun dawn
Guns are drawn
Skull and bones
Beast of war
Father help me, stop this

Rush of blood to the head
Look at you and i see red
Start the game
I'll end it

By this hate
That you help the world create
I've been sent
Now repent
I'm the war that comes to you
The plague that follow through

I've been told
You've been warned
To stop the hatred you have spawned
The qualms you have are stupid
By this movement manifest
Lord I'll put you to the test
Yet you fail
Now the blind that follow you
Will burn in hell with you

Chorus:

All by myself
I know that i stand here alone
All your lies they feed me
I'm stronger now
Stronger than i was before there's no way you can hurt me move me, stop me

II

You talk to much  hush
You had a chance to change things move in the direction of right
Choose the set of bar
But then you had to pick a fight
So what's daddy done for you lately
Bought you to the throne
Like stealing candy from a baby
Line your pockets with Mucho Dinero
Paid in full with blood of the people
So now you got the fires Rockin'
Blood and hate
Then you got the people talking
Legacy
You will never be forgotten
Your place in history
A black mark in time

Repeat chorus

III

Peace and flowers
Will kill the superpowers
The fall of Rome is near Can't you hear
It's been written, it's been said
The revelations I have read
The sign are here
Those days are over
Walk a away from the line
Cause now is the time

Repeat chorus
