

Bad Habit (Alex Metric Remix)

Foals

I know
You've fallen again
The way I fell before
Cause I'm a bad loser
When you get your way
And I know that I'm chained
I'm chained again
And you've lost your way
To the bed that I once made
Cause I'm a bad habit
One you cannot shake
And I hope that I change
But don't follow me
Don't follow me Cause if I go
Where the flowers grow
Into the deep below
Would you forget me now? Still small
Small voice of calm
Place the blame into my arms
Cause I'm a bad habit
One you cannot shake
Oh Mary mercy
Would you pray for me?
Would you pray for me? Cause if I go
Where the flowers grow
Into the deep below
Would you forget me now?
And if I could
Make the days ok
Wash the stains away
Would you forgive me now? I've made my mistakes
And I feel some thing's changed
I know what's at stake
I'll wash the stains away Cause if I go
Where the flowers grow
Into the deep below
Would you forget me now?
And if I could
Take the pain away

Wash the stains away
Well would you forgive me now?I've made my mistakes
And I feel some things change
I know what's at stake
Wash the stains away
And I feel quite OK
