

Have You Forgotten

A la Carte

Have you forgotten me

lord up above?

I stand here forsaken by all I loveHear me

oh

hear me and answer my pleaSend an angel to earth to comfort me.

A soldier stands guard on the volga's sideHe keeps his watch on the river wideThe night is dark and full of fearSilent is the land aroundNot a shred of comfort has he foundAnd his heart cries out in loneliness.Have you

forgotten me

lord up above?

Have you forgotten me

lord up above?

Have you forgotten me

lord up above?
