Look What Has Happened To Me

Amy Grant

In the morning when I wake and my feet can find the floor
I stumble down the hall and I open up the door
Then I look into the mirror just like you know you do
Stopping for a moment
I can feel my mind go through the boundaries of time
Back to a heart without his love inside
I was more than just alone, I was dying on my own
Thinking that nothing was ever gonna save my life
Look what has happened to me I find it hard to believe
His love has taken my life this far so far
Look what has happened to me my mind can hardly conceive
What I'm beginning to be look what, look what
When you stop and think it over do you think you're doing well
Are you getting stronger, can you really tell?
If you're truthful with your feelings then you'll see there's room to grow
Though we may have found the answer

There is so much more to know, more to this life
'Cause we can never stop growin' or we'll start to die
I cannot survive alone, I am nothin' on my own
But seeing's believin' and if you need to see look at me
Look what has happened to me I find it hard to believe
His love has taken my life this far so far
Look what has happened to me my mind can hardly conceive
Look what has happened, look what, look what
Look what has happened to me I find it hard to believe
His love has taken my life this far so far
Look what has happened to me my mind can hardly conceive
What I'm beginning to be, look what, look what
Look what has happened to me I find it hard to believe
His love has taken my life this far so far
Look what has happened to me my mind can hardly conceive
What I'm beginning to be, look what, look what
