

Why

Limp Bizkit

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

It might take too long to turn the lights back on
I guess I lay awake, I guess I'll lay here and pray
Could you pour me one more drink? A glass of gasoline
Help me burn my pain, light me up in the rainMy so-called life is so good
Why do we die?
Why do we die?
Slow downYou wonder how Ive been, you aint been checking in
Just hope my vital signs would send me home again
My babys in the grass, Jesus on the dash
I drive myself insane, just hoping I could stayMy so-called life is so good
Why do we die?
Why do we die?
Slow down, slow down
Slow down, slow downWhen deserts turn into floods, white orchids cover with mud
No magic carpet today, not today
Who takes the reigns, when Im gone disintegrate from my throne?
No magic carpet today, not todayWhy do we die?
Why do we die?
Why do we die?
Why do we die?
