Night In The City

Electric Light Orchestra

Standin' at the airport lookin' down the strip
She was cryin' her eyes, she was bitin' her lip
Seven-four-seven just left from gate eleven
And there's no turnin' round 'cos it's just leavin' the ground
And gettin' higher, higherStandin' at the dock-side lookin' out to sea
When I saw her but she did not see me
There she stood with no hope because she'd missed the boat
And as her dreams sailed away she headed back for the day
Back to the city, cityNight in the city, oh
Madness at mid, mid, mid, midnight
Night in the city drivin' you insane
In the city, cityNight in the city, oh
Madness at mid, mid, mid, midnight
Night in the city drivin' you insaneI was runnin' kinda lonely at the city place
I waited for an hour, I never saw her face
Crazy ladies that wait and slide around like a snake
I just can't take anymore, I'm going in through the door
Into the city, cityI'll get you, yes, I'm gonna get you
I'll get you, yes, I'm gonna get you
I'll get you, yes, I'm gonna get youI'll get you, yes, I'm gonna get you
I'll get you, yes, I'm gonna get you
I'll get you, yes, I'm gonna get you
Drivin' you insaneNight in the city, oh
Madness at mid, mid, mid, midnight
Night in the city drivin' you insane
Drivin' you insane, drivin' you insane
