Satellites

Rickie Lee Jones

Well we were born forever
We are twinned in a fugitive mind
Friends should stay together and
Light the world with the fugitive kindSo you keep talking in many languages
Telling us the way you feel
Don't stop confiding in the road you're on
Don't quit, you're walking satellitesI just saw you walking
Ice was reading fortunes in the moonlight
Thinks he could not tell you
So never read it more than you will tonightSo you keep talking in many languages
Telling us the way you feel
Don't stop confiding in the road you're on
Don't quit, you're walking satellitesWalking satellites
She laughs satellites
A room filled with satellites
Walking satellitesWe were born forever
Tunneled into the fugitive night
Friends must stay together
Code the world with the fugitive lightI just saw you walking
Ice was reading fortunes by the moonlight
Casting runes on the rooftops and alleys
Never read it more than you will tonightSo you keep talking in many languages
Telling us the way you feel
Don't stop confiding in the road you're on
Don't quit, you're walking satellitesWalking satellites
She laughs satellites
A room filled with satellites
Walking satellites
Walking satellites
Walking satellites
