Recover You

And One

Come on sweetie, do you remember me?
I was the boy from the band And One.
Come to me, let's have some dirty fun,
You nasty piece of work.Follow me, I am the only one.
I am up, 'cause I am down.
Come to me, don't listen to the clown,
You nasty piece of work.I will recover you.
I will recover me.
Be here, be mine, give me a sign oh,
I will recover you.Trust in me, I'll give you what you need.
Smash you up and crash you down.
Come to me, watch out for innocence,
You nasty piece of work.I will recover you.
I will recover me.
Be here, be mine, give me a sign oh,
I will recover you.Be here, be mine, give me a sign oh,
I will recover you.
