10 Am

Left Boy

"Oh what a lonely boy x3"I've been gone too long working on these songs yeah, work is a bitch yeah, me and her don't get along cause, we're stuck. I try to keep my head up. cause I know if I don't get up nothing 'round here gon' be betterwell I guess that's life sometimes it feels like shit ain't right.
I'm at home, up all night all alone, most of the timebridgewhy do I do this shit?
10 AM in the morning I ain't seen no one in a month and I got deadlines on deadlines back and forth thru the room gonna get this tune, I miss you why didn't you call back?hook2x cause I need to get things done I wanna be that kid that they put on yeah they be like "What's that song?"
"Yeah, that's my favorite one"who's that kid, looks like shit like he got no sleep in a month and a little bit all white, let the KKK out understand what you try'na say this ain't a good look right outta' book but when I get a beat then I come up with the right hook need to get a tight cook that works all night long And some nice lad to give me that summertime on bridge hookNext in line, I'm fallin from the exit sign and I know that its gonn be great if I pull my way, I can't wait it's like the sun is coming back up Gimme some good weed in the muthafuckin hottub I'm 'way and I don't know when I come backCause let's put it down real real nice for y'all So imma let you think about that.bridgehook.
