

Invisible Prisons (feat. Justin Furstenfeld)

Zeale

There's a place all alone you can go to and you you will if you're cool I can show you Get to know you cuz we go through the same things in the world you feel Cuz everybody loses and everybody bruises too
Its real no matter what you're doing everybody feels it too Cuz I know what it means to breakdown no sign of relief Can't breathe cuz all of the pressure pain no one understands can't explain everything you're feeling right now when it hurts "suck it up" is what they say I wish I could tell you everything will be ok
But its not
And that's ok

When your life throws a right hook tell me are you strong enough?
And with your head hanging down I swear you gotta pick it up you Gotta be brave and be bold and be crazy enough to live it up
When your life throws a right hook
Fight back
Uppercut

Stick stick
Move move
It hurts
It hurts

We ask got doubts and pain we're all getting wet in the rain we're human and that's the game so why would you ever complain?
You live life once its never the same you try so hard but its never in vain
And that's just life whatever the price
We all got here from a roll of the dice
I know everything you're thinking Sometimes it feels life you're shrinking You're not, the world's just sinking Take a look around all the lights keep blinking
No one is left to save the day you're doing what you can to find your way

And I wish I could tell you it will be ok
But I can't
And that's ok

When your life throws a right hook tell me are you strong enough?
And with your head hanging down I swear you gotta pick it up you Gotta be brave and be bold and be crazy
enough to live it up
When your life throws a right hook
Fight back
Uppercut

Someone I don't even care wanna yell out wanna pull my hair tell the universe all of this ain't fair you told me you were here butt nobody is there Like i'm not aware when everyone stares Judging my life by the skin that I wear
The money I make the burden I bear and I ask you for nothing in return for these years We've been there we've done that we broke out and ran away from that Now we're free why would I run back?
They can do what they want but i'm never gonna come back I won't live in invisible prisons poor decisions and your religion
I wish I could tell you it will be ok
But I can't
And that's ok

When your life throws a right hook tell me are you strong enough?
And with your head hanging down I swear you gotta pick it up you Gotta be brave and be bold and be crazy
enough to live it up
When your life throws a right hook
Fight back
Uppercut
