Nobody's Fool

Bill LaBounty

Sooner or later, when I get straight I'll walk away from scenes like this When I see you coming, I'll take off running but right now I just can't resistI know what you're all about you chew up hearts and spit em out I'd skip the whole thing if I could but ooooo you feel so goodI'm nobody's fool, but what a temptation I'm nobody's fool, but what a sensationMinute by minute, the deeper I'm in the more I lose my self control But I got a notion, this kind of emotion is not too healthy for the soulI've been down this street before I've been around I know the score but when we make your kind of love ooooo I can't get enoughI'm nobody's fool, but what a temptation I'm nobody's fool, but what a sensationI know where this thing is going
I can almost feel the pain but even in spite of knowing it all here I go againI'm nobody's fool, but what a temptation
I'm nobody's fool, but what a sensationI'm nobody's fool, but what a temptation
I'm nobody's fool, but what a sensationI'm nobody's fool, but what a temptation
I'm nobody's fool, but what a sensation
