

United States

The Smashing Pumpkins

Tired eyes, closed for days
There's no regrets 'cause there's no place
I don't know what I believe
But if I feel safe, what do I need
A home
A home
A home
Revolution, revolution
Revolution blues, what will they do?
Revolution, revolution
Revolution blues, what will they do to me?
Dulcet tongues whisper fast
The future yearns, right now's the past
Rouse me soon, the end draws nigh
Whose side are you on? Your blood you cannot buy
Revolution, revolution
Revolution blues, what will they do?
Revolution, revolution
Revolution blues, what will they do to you?
Well, I, I feel alright
So tonight, I got to ask you why
Why deny it, it's no surprise
I've got to survive
Freedom shines, the light ahead
I'll lead the last charge to bed
I said my last rights
I don't have to run scared no more
Fight, I wanna fight
I wanna fight revolution
Tonight, I wanna fight
I wanna fight revolution
Tonight, at the light, at the light
Do you wanna watch me die?
Let me be something good
Let me prove something real like I should
Let me embrace every single living thing

Let me be every single moment I ever misunderstood

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>