One Good Reason

Cousteau

You know, I've seen her eye to eye
I've seen her in the flesh
You could call it what you like
A mood, a hunch, a guessTime travels at the speed of life
There's always time to kill
For half a second's second sight
That's way beyond your willLike she don't know, no better and better still
She's taking my breath away as if I didn't knowIf I didn't know better
I'd suffer and leave it alone
No betterI'll ride it, I'll right it
I'll go one better
I'll let her inside
The girl's done nothing wrongFor heaven's sake, she turns me on
Make no mistake, she turns me onShe's been shifting round her shape
Been missing for some time
Well aware when I awake
Aware when I been lyingSheer water in her eyes
A winter windows rain
All the weather of desire
All the ways to know the painLike she don't know, no better again and again
She's taking my breath away as if I didn't knowIf I didn't know better
I'd suffer and leave it alone
No betterI'll ride it, I'll right it
I'll go one better
I'll let her inside
Just to see her garden growFor heaven's sake, she turns me on Make no mistake, she turns me on
