Pillow Talk

Joss Stone

Hey, baby,let me stay
I don't care what your friends
Are 'bout to say
Ah-ahWhat you friends all say is fine
But it can't compete
With this pillow talk of mineYou can't find love
On a one way street
It takes two to tangle
Takes two to even compete
So boy, just put
That stop sign down
And let's get together
Before the day runs us down
I'm pleading to you now
Hey, baby, let me try
To be the one's
Who's gonna light your fireWhat you friends all say is fine
But it can't compete
With this pillow talk of mineOoh, I don't wanna see you be no fool
What I'm teachin' you tonight
You'll never learn it in schoolSo friends who tell me
Wrong from right
I'll ask to borrow their pants
Some cold and lonely night
Ooh, hey, baby, let me be
The one who turns you
On from A to ZWhat you friends all say is fine
But it can't compete
With this pillow talk of mine
Ooh... babyI'm pleading to you nowHey baby
So baby, just put
That stop sign down
You can't find love
On a one way street
It takes two to tangle
Takes two to even competeOoh, baby, la-la-la-la-la-la-la
Ah... would you, baby
Would you, baby, la-la-la-la-la-la-la
I, I, I, I, I, I, I, I

Uno momento por quito
Uno momento por quito
I, I, I, I
Nice daddy, nice daddy, nice daddy
I, I, I, I
Oh, my God
